How to apply in five easy steps

Hi Mikaela,

If you want to start a full-time college program in September 2019 or January 2020, now's a good time to apply! Here's how.

1. Find your program fit: Research your options and do our career quiz.
2. Meet admission requirements: Each program has different admission requirements. Learn more on individual program web pages.
3. Submit your application: Most students will apply at ontariocolleges.ca by Feb. 1.
4. Send your transcripts: If you're in high school, your transcripts should be sent to ontariocolleges.ca automatically. If you're not in high school, ask your past institutions to send your transcripts to ontariocolleges.ca.
5. Track your application: After you've applied, we'll email you instructions to log in to your academic dashboard to check your admission status and next steps.

If you apply by Feb. 1 your application will receive equal consideration. After that date, some programs will be full.
